LEGAL WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2018 – Present Thomas A. Herald, P.C.
- 2014 – 2018 Noteboom – The Law Firm
- 2010 – 2014 Farmers Insurance, Managing Attorney and Specialty Trial Attorney
As the Managing Attorney for the Dallas office of Farmers Insurance, I was responsible for all litigation and claims relationships for the company for the northern half of Texas. I ran the Dallas and Longview law offices and supervised 26 attorneys, and 14 staff. My responsibilities as Managing Attorney and Specialty Trial Attorney included:
 - Overseeing the office's handling of approximately 2,000 litigated cases at any given time;
 - Reducing legal costs for the company to ensure an overall average Cost Per File of less than $4,000;
 - Handling the office's most complex, highest exposure and high-profile cases including but not limited to cases involving: (1) car accidents, (2) products liability; (3) professional liability; (4) trade secrets; (5) employee-employer litigation (6) non-subscriber litigation; (7) construction litigation; (8) breach of contract; (9) insurance disputes; (10) oil & gas litigation; (11) real property disputes; (12) commercial litigation, (13) intellectual property; (14) real property disputes; (15) claims filed under the Texas Tort Claims Act;(16) premises liability; (17) coverage issues; and (18) many others;
 - Assisting the company in handling its higher exposure, pre-litigation claims;

- Leading “roundtable” sessions designed to develop strategies to evaluate and to manage to evaluate every file prior to trial.
- Developing processes to ensure compliance with federal and state employment laws and regulations during the hiring, promotion, and disciplinary processes.
- Training employees. Presenting seminars to both attorneys and claims employees;
- Monitoring legislative and judicial changes that may impact the company;
- Overseeing the technological issues associated with the company’s move to a being a paperless office;
- Coordinating the relocation of the office from Arlington to Irving, including assisting in the contract negotiations for the office space and the design and construction of the new office;
- 2005-2010 Montes Herald Law Group, LLP
